Memorial Day Plans as Outlined by Soldiers and Sailors

Memorial Day ceremonies will be held by the G. A. R., Spanish War Veterans and the Soldiers, Sailors and Marines club of Weber county. All ex-service men, and those in the city or county who are still in service, are invited by the organizations to assemble Friday morning at the city hall not later than 9 o'clock in the morning. The bodies will march to the cemetery, one group being assigned to go to Mountain View and the other to the City Cemetery for brief ceremonies.

This plan was announced last night at the meeting of the Soldiers, Sailors and Marines club of Weber county held in the Masonic club rooms.

Byles W. Larkin was appointed chairman of the committee in charge of the exercises and two assistants, Sergeants Lynn Meibos, of the United States marine corps, and Harry Bagley. This committee, it was decided, will obtain flags similar to those used by the G. A. R. and the Spanish war veterans. These flags will mark the graves of boys buried in local cemeteries who died while in service and whose bodies were sent home for burial.

To insure a complete attendance of every club member, it was suggested that Secretary William Greenwell be given authority to mail a card to each member, urging his attendance in uniform at the exercises.

In regard to the soldiers, sailors or marines from Weber county who died in service and whose bodies are now interred in local cemeteries, Mr. Larkin, chairman of the committee for the decoration of these graves, stated that he would appreciate word from anyone knowing of such graves. The exact location of the burial place would assist Mr. Larkin and the committee, it is stated.

Due to the fact that the organization has no chaplain at present, the firing of a volley over the graves of the dead members will not be observed.

In absence of Captain J. Ray Ward and Captain Donald Rhivlers, Captain Royal Douglas presided. He gave a detailed report of the work accomplished in organizing the American legion at St. Louis and read the constitution of the order as it now stands. In regard to the selecting of delegates for the state caucus, no choice was made, each member who can possibly attend the convention, which will be held at Salt Lake on June 4 and 5, being urged to be present.

A letter from the G. P. Putnam company, publishers of New York, telling of the book which has been printed, containing detailed accounts of the American legion convention in Paris and also in St. Louis, was read to the organization. This book is the first of a series, according to the letter, which will form a continual source of information regarding the organizing of the American legion.

Colonel J. H. Knauss, chairman of the Flag day committee for the Elks' club, extended an invitation to club members to be present at the services which will be held June 15 in memorial.

ANOTHER ARREST MADE IN BRIGGS MURDER MYSTERY

SALT LAKE, May 27.—William Brooks, a negro, was arrested in Los Angeles last night upon request of the Salt Lake sheriff's office. He is said by Deputy Sheriff Riley M. Beckstead to be the third person named in the warrant sworn out in the office of the county attorney in connection with the mysterious murder, on the night of January 13, of Joseph Briggs of Fairview, Utah, 69 years of age. Briggs was shot to death just west of Fifth West street on Second South street. Thomas and Maude Linker, who are said by Deputy Sheriff Beckstead to be named in the same warrant as "John Doe Curley" and "Jane Doe Maude," were arrested Saturday evening on Second South street by Deputy Sheriff S. E. Talley, and are being held in the county jail with a murder charge against them.

The task of gathering the evidence in the case was started by Deputy Sheriff Beckstead in January, immediately after the crime was committed. The Linkers lived at the Macedonia hotel, 528½ West Second South street. The only clue furnished at the time of the shooting came from James Malvey, a returned soldier, who heard a pistol shot and saw Briggs apparently struggling on the sidewalk with two men. He found Briggs dead upon reaching him, after the two assailants had fled.

The theory advanced by Deputy Sheriff Beckstead last night is that Mrs. Linker, who was the landlady of the Macedonia hotel, learned in some way that the Fairview farmer had a considerable amount of money with him and gave the tip that led to the attack for the purpose of robbery that resulted in his death.

He died from a bullet wound in the head just below and in front of the left ear. He is believed to have died instantly. At the time of his murder Briggs stopped over in Salt Lake on a return trip from visiting his son, who was residing in Ogden.

Immediately after the arrest of the Linkers Saturday their room at the Macedonia hotel was searched by deputies, who said that nothing of an incriminating nature was found there. Mrs. Linker obeyed the advice of her counsel, Russell G. Schuller, of King, Bruffett & Schuller, and declined to talk.

Linker stated that his wife had been previously married to Bert Warner of Ogden, who was accidentally killed in a wreck while employed on the O. L. & I. electric railroad. Linker gave the age of his wife and himself as 24, while Mrs. Linker said she was 28 and her husband 27. Mrs. Linker was conducting the Macedonia rooming house at the time of her arrest. Her husband had been a driver for the Liberty Bottling works, but was seeking work as a barber.

Both protested upon their arrest that they knew of nothing to warrant their detention. Linker said he considered himself unfairly suspected, but admitted that he had a suspicion as to who did the killing.

Members of the organization who have not been attending are urged to take a more active part in the organization. It is part of a national organization and it is the duty of every man who has been in service, according to the articles of the American legion, to participate in this work.

DRY FARM GRAIN IS MENACED BY DROUGHT

Thousands of acres of dry farm grain crops, which had wintered exceptionally well and promised abundant harvests, will die if there is no rain within a very few days, according to R. E. Davis of Brigham, president of the state land board.

Mr. Davis said yesterday that in Box Elder county some of the grain had been killed by the drought already, and that unless relief came soon all of it would be dead. Dry farmers are extremely discouraged over the lack of rain, he said, because an excellent winter and early spring had given the crops an unusually good start.

SUGAR SUIT LOSERS WOULD REOPEN CASE

SALT LAKE, May 27.—A petition was filed by the defendants yesterday in the Third district court to reopen the suit of the West Cache Sugar company against J. A. Hendrickson and Lorenzo N. Stohl, an action to recover secret promotion profits, in which Judge W. H. Bramel found for the plaintiff in the amount of $150,850.

The petitioners represent that, since the court's judgment in that they were agents of the sugar company in its promotion they are entitled to compensation for their services.

The petition was accompanied by an affidavit made by Mr. Hendrickson setting forth claims totalling $184,430 in money and 137 shares of the capital stock of the West Cache Sugar company. Arguments on the petition are to be heard by Judge Bramel Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

CYCLE RACES REVIVED.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—With the opening of the new Velodrome here recently, the sport of bicycle and motorcycle racing has been revived after having been dormant for many years. Good crowds have attended the meets and if the attendance continues, the sport is likely to prosper. Among the riders are many well-known contestants, including Hans Crt, Iver Lawson, Fred McLaughlin and Orlando Stevens. The track, a modern high-banked ellipse, is said to be a fast one and one of the best in the country.

COUNTER PROPOSALS READY.

PARIS, May 26.—The German counter proposals to the allied peace terms will be ready tomorrow night, according to a statement made in French peace conference circles tonight, and Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau will present them Wednesday.

It was also announced tonight that the council of four had ratified the decision of the economic council to maintain the blockade against Germany until a regular government, based on a free and popular mandate is set up.

MANY AMERICANS OCCUPY THE CITY OF KAVALLA

KAVALLA, Macedonia, April 11.—(Mail).—There are so many Americans in Kavalla, the first city in the Balkans to become a basis for American Red Cross operations, that it has some of the aspects of a real American city. Here the finest tobacco in the world—the bulk of which is consumed in America—is grown. Here the great American tobacco companies have export headquarters.

For years Bulgaria has looked upon Kavalla with a covetous eye. Although defeated and subdued, she looked hopefully to the peace congress at Paris to give her Kavalla as a port. Kavalla is not a harbor but Bulgaria, which now has only the shallow port of Dedegatch, at the mouth of the Gulf of Enos, is anxious to get any outlet through Macedonia and the sea for her large output of tobacco, wheat, livestock, silk and attar of roses, and would be quite ready to spend any sum in developing and deepening the harbor.

During the war the Bulgarians adopted in Kavalla the same ruthless practices they followed in all occupied territory. They pillaged and destroyed. They made every effort to make the land uninhabitable. They cut down the trees and carried off furniture and everything made of wood. They sacked the homes and drove the Greek inhabitants out. When the Greek commission of the American Red Cross established relief posts here, after the armistice, no section of the Balkans ever presented a more depressing picture of misery and squalor. The Americans found the inhabitants dying by the dozen from famine, exposure and typhus. They established soup kitchens and dispensaries, and gave out tens of thousands of American-made garments. They sent physicians, nurses and medical supplies, distributed hundreds of thousands of loaves of bread made of American flour, established shelters for the homeless women and children and cared for the hordes of broken and dispirited Greek and Serbian soldiers who had been released from vile prison camps in Bulgaria.

This work, which was under the direction of Lieutenant Colonel Edward Capps, who in peace times is professor of Greek at Princeton university, doubtless resulted in saving thousands of persons who might otherwise have succumbed to starvation and exposure.

The natives speak with unbounded gratitude of the help given them by the Americans. They say the food furnished by the American Red Cross was the first substantial nourishment they had in four years.

Germans Prevent Danish People From Shipping

LONDON, April 17.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—While the attention of the allies is concentrated on the Germans along the western front, German government officials in Schleswig are preventing the Danes, who have the consent of the entente, from shipping food to their own needy countrymen in Schleswig.

This information has been received here by Edmund Gosse, well-known English literary critic.

"I learn," he said in a letter to the Morning Post, "that the burgomaster of Flensburg declares that the hungry inhabitants of that town, the largest in Schleswig, have no need of Danish food."

The same German official, according to Mr. Gosse's information, has refused passports to any families in the town and district of Flensburg to cross over into Denmark to accept an offer of Jutland and Funen to receive several thousand Danish-speaking Schleswig children. "If Danes in Flensburg dislike German rule," he puts it, "they may starve."

Mr. Gosse terms as "scandalous" the treatment of Schleswig soldiers repatriated through Denmark.

"These unhappy men," he said, "are arrested as they cross the frontier, are prevented from even visiting their relatives, and are immediately conveyed to the Polish frontiers to swell the German army there. North Schleswig is at the present moment more severely persecuted than it was even through the war. There is proceeding a commandeering of cattle and horses which is paralyzing to the population, and this is emphasized by the indulgence with which South (or German) Schleswig is being treated."

Schleswig, he understands, is now closed to all persons coming from Denmark.

"On the Rhine, under the eye of England and France," Mr. Gosse observed, "the boche may be meek enough, but he shows little change of heart where he escapes from the eye of the victorious allies."

Schleswig, the northern half of Schleswig-Holstein between the North and Baltic seas, has been a province of Prussia since 1864 when it was wrested from Danish control. Under the peace treaty of Paris the control of certain zones of Schleswig is to be decided by plebiscite.
